

PENCIL DRAWING COURSE

Have you ever wanted to be able to draw or to learn to draw better?

Are you unsure where to start?

Do you want regular personal feedback and advice on how to improve?

Come and Join us...

This is a course in classical drawing methods where we will start with the very basics and build your confidence to draw well. No previous experience is required and materials will be provided.

You will learn techniques to draw anything, from photo references, from life and even from your own imagination. Each week we will cover a new topic in detail, followed by a practical drawing session, and homework activities to continue throughout the week.
